Builders Club Premium can be used in games greatly increasing the amount of Robux and/or XP a player earns by a given amount. If used, then Builder's Club is required to play those games. There are two types of premium features: content premium and currency premium. Content Premiums typically involves a single item or feature that changes the game mechanic, such as more life points and/or more room to build, or increased maximum health for monsters. Currency Premiums usually involve the addition of new items to the game that are only available through favorable conditions (for example, allowing players to purchase a specific item for Robux). Some Currency Premiums can also require membership in Builders Club.

Here is where things get a little confusing but stick with me for a second and I'll link things together for you. When you get Robux gems and tokens from winning games, there is no value in the items you receive. There is no way to spend those items on anything in this game because they don't have any value. You can't sell them, you can't trade them for anything, they don't have in game money attached to them, etcetera.

If you have never played "Robloxian life" then it won't be easy for you to get Robux because you'll have to do tasks, watch videos, spam the chat, and probably a lot more. If you want Robux fast, then this may not be your best game.

HelloRoblox2 works in almost the same way as HelloRoblox. It sends you robux once you've uploaded a video on YouTube. However, there is a slight difference. HelloRoblox2 has been around for a while, and because of this, the robux it can send are easier to get. It generally only sends out 100-200 robux per day. This works out to about 1 free robux per week. If you're in a hurry, HelloRoblox2 is probably better than HelloRoblox.
