ROBLOX games have made the news many times in the past. Below is a short list of some of them. Prior to 2021-2021, ROBLOX game developers were responsible for any known instances of hacking that happened in ROBLOX. There were also older instances where hackers had not yet discovered the community, but eventually did so, and started making exploits on their games that were very popular (such as "Hacker Escape"). Hackers also used an exploit to gain access to admin privileges on a game called The War Factory, which had over 500,000 concurrent players at once. When this was discovered, the hacker was immediately taken down by ROBLOX's staff.

Some of the most popular games on Roblox are roleplaying games, which allow players to create their own character and explore a world with other characters created by other players. These games are incredibly fun and addicting, especially if you want an alternate form of social media that is not just photo posting based.

ROBLOX has banned thousands of accounts, usually for viral videos made by "trolls" or people who want to annoy other users/admins. Most of the bans these users receive are handed out by administrators but every once in a while a user will get banned for a "troll" video or similar reason. Some are also apparently banned because they made potentially offensive comments in the chatbox, not for any type of post or action that breaks the TOS.

Over the years, ROBLOX has used advertising to generate revenue for their company, which they generate through in-game purchases (microtransactions) or advertisements (which can be annoying for the players). In addition to this, they also generate revenue through selling virtual items (like the aforementioned Builders Club and ROBLOX Credit). The company has also released several games like their top grossing game "Build a Buddy". ROBLOX has been criticized for its lack of funding from advertisers as well as allowing other companies to make games on ROBLOX. The company has been criticized for their children friendly ads which are designed to be easily visible by children but are very inappropriate for them which is seen as a breach of the COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) and their end user license agreement, although ROBLOX has since changed its policy. The company also uses an "Ads on the Web" program where they can serve certain types of ads depending upon a player's age and location.

On December 20, 2021, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

- The fact that there are so many different games to play, it's hard to keep up with all of them. There is such a variety of games which leads to me getting easily confused on what game I was previously playing and where everything was set up. That's why I am always working on the same game over and over again.
