The company itself has not ever made such uses of VR technology but have given their developers access to the SDK in order to promote VR technology. The company is planning on releasing an SDK for Sony's Project Morpheus and Oculus Rift at some point in the future, although no dates have been officially announced. However, ROBLOX has been criticized due to their unusual (less than the minimum) end user license agreement. Roblox has released a new version of its app called Ava (ROBLOX's Mobile Application). See above section for more details.

Roblox is also known for giving away free robux, tix or any other currency for a limited time. They will give these out on a special day and if you do not want to miss out on them because people are using them, then you should have just been using the free robux promo codes for ROBLOX already. These holds of the code can even be used as gifts among friends. There are very limited codes that they will give out though. If you want to be in line for one of these codes and still want to have fun, then you should always make sure that you do not use them too fast. This way, they will not release anymore codes and people will obviously lose out on having fun.

This is not an open world game, each world contains its own mini-map that shows the player where he or she can go and where they cannot go. No one will know you're there if you stay hidden. This means that if you don't want someone to find something in your inventory, you have a location to hide it.

ROBLOX's Terms of Service has many loopholes which allows users to get away with nearly anything, such as selling products that have been stolen from other users or using bots for their own gain. The system is also very inconsistent in how it deals with complaints and bans. One of the more infamous examples is user "Sephiroth", who had been banned for attempting to distribute his game, "TitanMC". The ban was eventually lifted, and the account became widely regarded as a joke.[11]
